

METROPOLITAN MIGRANT RESOURCE CENTRE INC.

The Metropolitan Migrant Resource Centre Inc (MMRC) is a not - for - profit community based organisation in Mirrabooka providing services across the Metropolitan area.

MMRC provides a range of services to assist refugees, humanitarian entrants and migrants to settle in WA.

Generalist Program - Settlement Services Activity (SSA)

The SSA Generalist program is funded by the Department of Social Services (DSS). MMRC delivers client centred services to eligible clients through case work, information sessions, support groups, advocacy and referrals to community and mainstream services.

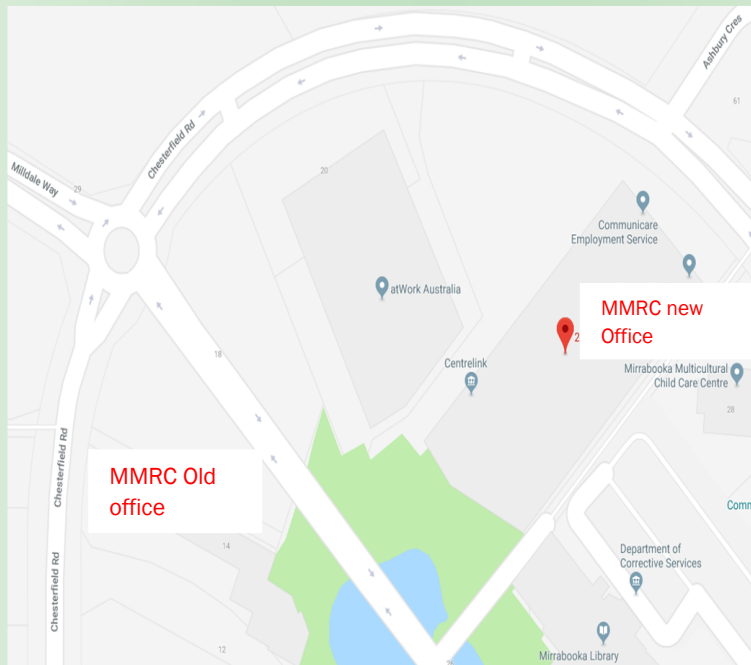

With special focus on an individual's needs, the SSA program delivers life skills workshops and information sessions on a wide range of topics and provides women's and seniors support groups (Butler and Girrawheen) in addition to basic computer literacy and Citizenship classes.

MMRC provides this service from our main office in Mirrabooka and has outreach services in Clarkson and Perth (Central North Metropolitan TAFE).

The SGP program aims to facilitate access to mainstream services and support participation and successful settlement in Australia for clients from refugee and humanitarian backgrounds who have lived in Australia for less than 5 years.

SSA - YOUTH

The SSA Youth provides services to young people aged 12-25 years from migrant and humanitarian backgrounds. The service assists all eligible SSA clients to integrate, participate in mainstream activities, contribute positively into society and reduce isolation. This is achieved through a range of sports and arts activities to engage, mentor and build leadership skills in the young people.
